CLASS: Improvisation with Ed Foose

WHAT: Improvisation teaches students to think faster, be a confident public speaker, tap into their comedic voice, think more creatively, perform better in auditions, and to laugh and have fun! Whether you're brand-new to improv or just want to brush up on skills, this class can help to flex your skills in a dynamic, entertaining, and highly satisfying way!

More about Ed: Ed Foose is a core member of the Jackson-based improv comedy group The Royal Y'all. He got his start in improv in 2011 as a member of Fowl Play in Rochester, New York. Since then, he has been a rotating player with Chimp Knuckles and The Misfit Monkeys. Professionally, he is a motion graphics artist and video editor.
