All classes will be held in the Hewes Room at New Stage Theatre

Elementary and Middle School Classes

Taught by the New Stage Theatre Professional Acting Company –Hope Prybylski, Jake Bell, LaSharron Purvis and Resident Teaching Artist Chris Roebuck.

Winter/Spring Session—$150

Story Theatre – Charlotte's Web (1st-3rd grade)

Saturdays 8 Week Session:

February 11, 18, 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25 & April 1 @ 9-10:30 a.m.

Fern adopts a piglet and names him Wilbur. But when he becomes a nice little fat pig, and is about to meet the fate of all other pigs, Fern is upset. Fortunately for Fern and Wilbur, there's a spider named Charlotte. In this class we take one of our favorite stories, Charlotte's Web, and create a play! We will play dress up, play, learn about storytelling, character, and generally have a great time making our favorite stories come to life! We'll use all that we learn to create a play based on Charlotte's Web. Students will be guided through basic theatre techniques within the framework of the story. But most of all, we will have fun inside one of our favorite stories! And then we will perform it as a showcase for friends and family.

Script From Scratch – The Potterverse!!! (4th-6th grade)

Saturdays 8 Week Session:

February 11, 18, 25, March 4, 11, 18, 25 & April 1 @ 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

Join us as we use wonderful characters from the world of Harry Potter and use our imaginations to put them in new situations in our very own play! In this class, we'll work on acting, storytelling, and playwriting skills to create a play for the showcase at the end of our class. As a class, we will brainstorm, improvise, and perform in a short play of our own creation.

Improv for Teens

Mondays, February 13 – April 3, 2017 5:30-7 p.m.

$150

Taught by Resident Teaching Artist Chris Roebuck

Students will learn ways to improve themselves as an actor and improv artist through this fun, high intensity class. Working with Chris on the skills that will help them create on their feet, the students will learn to listen, react, respond, and take a risk with their fellow classmates as they create characters for their improv scenes. They will then get to showcase their improv scenes on the final class day for family and friends.

Intermediate Acting Class for Adults

Mondays, February 13 – April 3, 2017 7:30-9 p.m.

$150

Taught by Resident Teaching Artist Chris Roebuck

This class is designed to provide the next step for students with some experience in acting. The students will enhance their skills in acting, analyzing, and improvisation as well as working on monologues and the audition process. Theatre exercises will be utilized to facilitate the creative process as well as foster an environment of trust within the class. Because the dynamic field of theatre is a useful tool for communicating in any arena, this course also serves as an excellent opportunity for students to sharpen their public speaking skills.
