phenomenal!

POWERFUL Performance! Kids were completely engaged! Very informative and entertaining. Thanks New Stage Theatre's touring company for empowering our students and staff! It was absolutely phenomenal!"

We loved
it!

The production was excellent! Very Entertaining! I liked that the play was adapted from a text that the students were very knowledgeable of. The students were completely engaged for the entire play. Hawkins is a diverse school on many levels, but primarily socioeconomically. While some of our students may have the opportunity to see theatre with their parents or other organizations most would not have this experience any other time of the year. It gave the students a cultural experience that they don't normally get. We loved it!"

– Ms. Nicholson, educator

Awesome as well as powerful production. Some aspects made you stop and wonder and say "hmmmm". Great performance!"

...great performance

This was a great performance. Lots of energy which kept the students engaged. I love that so many standards were incorporated into one production covered various grade levels. I think the most valuable element of this story is the social-emotional lesson connected to the moral. I would love for my students to experience anything you all perform."

Click, Clack Moo Cows That Type

Adapted by James E. Grote
Music by George Howe
Lyrics by James E. Grote and George Howe
From the book by Doreen Cronin
Illustrations by Betsy Lewin
Directed by Sharon Miles

“Cows that type? Hens on strike!
Whoever heard of such a thing!”

Barnyard animals that claim the barn is too cold for comfort? Based on the children’s book by Doreen Cronin, this musical comedy explores themes of standing up for yourself, working together, and the art of negotiation. The Cows, Hen, and Duck try to communicate with Farmer Brown, but he cannot understand cow’s moos, the cackle of chickens or the quack of the duck. They work all day to provide milk and eggs, but when their request for electric blankets to warm the drafty barn is ignored, action must be taken. Join the barnyard animals—and their trusty typewriter—as they engage in peaceful protest to improve their working conditions. **Best suited for elementary audiences and is available for performances October 18, 2022 through April 28, 2023.*

“Anne Frank and Emmett Till meet in Memory to inspire change today”

Through an imaginary conversation between two iconic figures of civil rights history, Anne & Emmett examines the innocence of children thrust into the most horrific of circumstances. This play is a history lesson about the importance of tolerance, compassion, and justice, to be acted on in life. Though worlds away from each other, both Anne Frank and Emmett Till were just 14 years old when they fell victim to hate and intolerance. Together both Anne and Emmett speak as teenagers do. Although isolated from the violence of their lives in the place called Memory, both discuss the injustices they faced and the actions that lead to their horrible ends recognizing the similarities between them. **Best suited for middle and high school audiences and is available for performances November 15, 2022 through April 28, 2023.*
