

Your Name: _____ School: _____

Subject/grade you teach _____

1. Please describe your overall reaction to the production.
 2. Please choose one or more production elements (costumes, set, sound, virtual aspect, lighting) and comment on it.
 3. Please choose a performance element (specific actor, voice, diction, expression, physicality) and comment on it.
 4. What themes of the production can you explore with your students?
 5. What do you consider the most valuable lessons imparted to students based on the themes of the production?
 6. Please comment on the other educational values of the production and theatre in the schools.
 7. How did your students react to the production?
 8. What element/part of the production did your students find the most interesting?
 9. How can watching a play adapted from fables and other children's stories enhance the learning process?
 10. What other plays would you like to see?
 11. What other resources can we provide to enhance your teaching?
 12. Please include any additional comments and observations. (use back of form if necessary)
- 