FENCES

When frustrations lead to tragic choices, relationships suffer the consequences. Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Drama and the Tony Award for Best Play.

"Universal enough to touch a chord in every human heart."

The New York Times

Set against the backdrop of 1950s Pittsburgh, August Wilson's Pulitzer Prize winning drama tells the story of Troy Maxson, a one-time star of the Negro baseball leagues who now works as a garbage man, holding court and expounding on life from the chair in his backyard. Due to his race, Troy was denied his shot at the big league, so when his son Cory wants his own chance to play ball, will Troy's bitterness and resentment threaten to tear their relationship apart? Fences explores the walls we build around ourselves and our loved ones, while also illuminating one family's struggles in a racist society. Recommended for 14 and older. Contains adult themes, subjects, and language.

Tickets $35; $30 seniors/students/military
