DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Ohmigosh, you guys. We made it through another year of Broadway Camp! I should have known that this energetic group of students and this exceptional staff would prove me wrong. A word of warning, though...you WILL be humming and singing these songs for days to come.

As usual, I thought camp was a tremendous success. I always get just as much out of the experience as the kids do. We all worked extremely hard, both in class and in rehearsal, to make this year's camp as excellent as possible. In addition to having honed their skills as performers, I hope the campers improved their confidence and other life skills they will need off of the stage.

I was skeptical five years ago when we decided to have two casts for the show. And while it provides many challenges, from costuming to rehearsal time, it also gives the campers new opportunities that they did not have in years past. And I hope they will agree with me that it was well worth it. Hopefully you the audience will too.

I must give much thanks and respect to my brilliant camp staff. They are a tremendously talented bunch of people, and there is no way this camp would have been the success it is without them. I am still a little bit of a self professed control freak, even after so many years of having great people who work as camp staff. But each year's staff makes it easy, and hopefully I am on the way to being a recovering control freak (but I doubt it :)). I am forever grateful to them, and I know the students love and respect them as well.

So sit back and enjoy the entertaining fruits of all our hard labor. I know you will be as proud as I am, and I hope that you and your children will find your way back here next summer.

50th
Anniversary

CRIMES OF THE HEART By Beth Henley

September 15 – September 27, 2015

In this deeply touching Southern Gothic comedy, three young sisters - Babe, Lenny and Meg - reunite in their Mississippi hometown to await news of their hospitalized grandfather—and that's just the start of their very bad day. With emotional troubles in the past and immediate troubles with the law, each of the dysfunctional Magrath sisters is forced to face the consequences of her crimes of the heart. Imaginative and hilarious, unpredictable and moving, this play is a contemporary classic.

A TIME TO KILL By Rupert Holmes; Based on the book by John Grisham

October 27 – November 8, 2015

After an unspeakable crime is committed against his daughter, Carl Lee Hailey takes the law into his own hands. Now on trial for murder, Carl Lee's only hope lies with two young, idealistic lawyers who are outmatched by a formidable district attorney and under attack from both sides of a racially divided city. A Time to Kill asks audiences to consider the true meaning of justice.

WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF By Edward Albee

January 26 – February 7, 2016

On the campus of a small New England college, George and Martha invite a new professor and his wife home for a nightcap. As the cocktails flow, the young couple find themselves caught in the crossfire of a savage marital war where the combatants attack the self-deceptions they forged for their own survival. Winner of the 1963 Tony Award for Best Play.

RED By John Logan

April 12 – April 24, 2016

In the 2010 Tony Award winner drama Red, master abstract expressionist Mark Rothko has just landed the biggest commission in the history of modern art, a series of murals for New York's famed Four Seasons Restaurant. In the two fascinating years that follow, Rothko works feverishly with his young assistant, Ken, in his studio on the Bowery. But when Ken gains the confidence to challenge him, Rothko faces the agonizing possibility that his crowning achievement could also become his undoing. Raw and provocative, Red is a searing portrait of an artist's ambition and vulnerability as he tries to create a definitive work for an extraordinary setting.

THE ROBBER BRIDEGROOM Book/Lyrics by Alfred Uhry; Music by Robert Waldman;

Based on the novella by Eudora Welty

May 24 – June 5, 2016

Set in eighteenth century Mississippi, the show follows Jamie Lockhart, a rascally robber of the woods, as he courts Rosamund, the only daughter of the richest planter in the country. The proceedings go awry, however, thanks to a case of double-mistaken identity. Throw in an evil stepmother intent on Rosamund's demise, her pea-brained henchman and a hostile talking head-in-a-trunk, and you have a rollicking country romp.

CAMPERS SEW MORE THAN 80 PILLOWCASES FOR CHARITY

Camp members participated in a special sewing project during a costume craft class in which they made pillowcases to donate to a local children's hospital for terminally ill children. Since every camper participated we were able to donate more than 80 pillowcases! The project is through an organization call ConKerr Cancer. Each year 44,000 children across North America are treated for cancer while thousands more experience life-changing illnesses and injuries. A hospital stay is a frightening experience for adults, and even more so for young children. ConKerr's mission is "A Case for Smiles – Helping children feel special while battling life changing illnesses." Thousands of ConKerr Cancer volunteers dedicate themselves to brightening these children's lives through the simple act of sewing a bright, cheery pillowcase. As a result of their love and generosity, ConKerr Cancer has delivered more than 990,000 pillowcases, creating 'miles of pillowcase smiles' for the children and their parents.
