

NEW STAGE Theatre

SEASON 59 | 2024-25

“I loved it! I thought the set was really cool and cried through the entire second act.” -

Jack, Christ Covenant School

“I would recommend a friend to see a production at New Stage Theatre because it seemed like I was part of the show.” -Mary Genevieve, Christ Covenant School, 6th grade student

“The connection between the audience and the actors is irreplaceable. We become part of the story in a way as we experience what is happening onstage. [The students] loved it too and several said they now want to read the book.” -Jan Taylor, Clausell Elementary adopter

“It introduces children and adults to storytelling in a whole new way. It feels more interactive and present than watching a movie. My 10 year old son was enthralled. He even loved the music, which surprised me.” -Deanna Pate, Classical Conversations Brandon, MS
