

Contact: Sharon Miles, Education Director
601.948.3533 ext. 232

WINTER CLASSES!

THE LITTLES for 1st – 3rd Graders

When: Saturday mornings from 9 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. (January 11-February 29, 2020)

Who: Students currently enrolled in 1st - 3rd grade

What: Students will be guided through the building blocks of theatre technique by building a script from scratch using the book Olivia by Ian Falconer. Classes will be structured to work on character development, acting technique, and storytelling to create a showcase of an original script.

Cost: $150

THE MIDDLES for 4th – 6th Graders

When: Saturday mornings from 10:45 a.m. -12:15 p.m. (January 11-February 29, 2020)

Who: Students currently enrolled in 4th - 6th grade

What: Students will explore theatre technique through skillful drama exercises, monologue and scene-work, with a focus on character development and textual analysis. Students will prepare an audition monologue and present a showcase of prepared scenes and classwork.

Cost: $150

YOUTH ACTING TROUPE

When: Saturday mornings from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m.

(Winter/Spring Semester starts January 18, 2020)

Who: Youth ages 12-18

What: Students will deepen their knowledge of acting technique through skillful drama exercises, focusing on monologue and scene-work, improvisation, audition prep and more. In addition to building a youth theatre community, these young performers will be designated to represent New Stage Education program with public performances throughout the year.

Cost: $100/month or $400/semester

New Stage Theatre
1100 Carlisle Street
Jackson, MS 39202
601-948-3533
www.newstagetheatre.com